ANDRIJA ARTUKOVIC
INTERNAL SECURITY - YU

100-158205
A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned during July, 1963, that Saul Joffe, Secretary of S' Nal Brith, had been in contact with a representative of the Yugoslav Government in Belgrade, requesting that he be allowed to meet with President Tito. Joffe had advised that he is a close friend of United States Attorney General Robert Kennedy and that his meeting with President Tito would be the beginning of the extradition of Andrija Artukovic from the United States.

Artukovic is the former Ustashi leader who allegedly collaborated with the Germans in prosecuting and murdering many Yugoslavs of Serbian descent.
